2. Sale Rationale

Ichigo Office continues to execute on its strategy to grow long-term value for Ichigo Office shareholders by focusing its portfolio on high-quality office assets. Consistent with this strategy, Ichigo Office is selling two non-office retail assets and expects to deploy the funds for growth investments.

Ichigo Office regularly reviews its portfolio for profitability and determines whether it is in the best interest of shareholders to continue to own each asset. In this case, Ichigo Office decided to sell the Ichigo Sapporo Minami 2 Nishi 3 Building based upon its maintenance needs and rental outlook, and Ichigo Daimyo Balcony, despite its current full occupancy, based upon concerns about its competitiveness with nearby assets and rental outlook.

The total sale price of the two assets is 1.6X book value and 1.4X appraisal value, resulting in gains on sale of c. JPY 610 million.

Because the Transaction Date is April 20, 2018, which exceeds one month by four days, the sale of Ichigo Daimyo Balcony (hereafter, the “Sale”) constitutes a “forward commitment”¹ by Ichigo Office as stipulated in the “Comprehensive Guidelines for Supervision of Financial Instruments Business Operators” by the Financial Services Agency.

In the event of a violation of the provisions of the Sale by Ichigo Office or the buyer, the other party shall have the right to terminate the Sale and claim an amount equivalent to 20% of the purchase price as penalty.

Because Ichigo Office is the seller, it is highly unlikely that Ichigo Office will not be able to fulfill its obligations under the Sale.

Details of early repayments of the loans will be announced as soon as they are determined.

9. Earnings Outlook

Although the sales are forecast to generate gains on sale of c. JPY 610 million, the impact on Ichigo Office’s earnings and dividend forecast for the April 2018 fiscal period is minimal and therefore the forecast is unchanged. The gains on sale will be retained and used by Ichigo Office to fund asset acquisitions and value-add capex to grow value for Ichigo Office shareholders.

For the October 2018 fiscal period, the impact on Ichigo Office’s earnings and dividend forecast due to the decrease in operating revenue from these sales is also minimal and therefore the forecast is unchanged.
