Pretty Woman the Musical Overview

The musical adaptation of the hit 90's movie Pretty Woman is coming to Japan for the first time. Set in Los Angeles, the movie was a global hit featuring a love story between a capable businessman played by Richard Gere and a carefree escort played by Julia Roberts.

The musical adaptation is coming to Japan for the first time after playing on New York's Broadway and London's West End in 2018. Bryan Adams, a renowned singer-songwriter popular in Japan, has written and composed the musical's songs with Jim Vallance, his long-time collaborator. The musical numbers convey the times of the movie and features the unique Adams' sound that has produced hits such as "(Everything I Do) I Do It for You" and "Have You Ever Really Loved a Woman?" Jerry Mitchell, who has served as the director and choreographer for the Kinky Boots musical, serves as the musical's director and choreographer. The happy, positive musical with the message of "Love can Change People" is sure to capture the hearts of audiences.
